What is it like to serve on the Leadership Council of Unity Church of Overland Park?

The following are the comments of current and former members of the Leadership Council compiled so that those considering serving in this way might better understand the process, commitment, and consciousness found in this opportunity to serve Spirit.

In the words of those who have served:

- Serving on the leadership council of Unity Church of Overland Park is the most spiritually uplifting experience I have ever had. As a member of the council, you are surrounded by other members that share common value in the church’s success as a Spiritual home and a beacon for the community.

- Serving on the council offers one the opportunity to be in service by listening for the collective consciousness of our church community. It is very much about being open to what God has in store for us by being centered in prayer.
- Our diversity is an asset – our varied styles and different perspectives seem to allow for a healthy examination and discussion of topics at hand.
- I think the biggest surprise for me is the feeling I get when I leave the meetings. I can come in wiped out from the day and leave feeling rejuvenated.
- Being a member of UCOP council is at once exhilarating and humbling. Working and playing beside others who are totally committed to the betterment of our church and service to others is the finest and most rewarding experience of my life.

But what if I don't feel qualified or ready to step into church leadership?

When asked, "What would you say to someone feeling the call, but who is unsure they are ready or qualified?", council members shared:

- The call is all that matters. Spirit has a way of bringing out the skills, attitude, love, caring and comprehension needed to fulfill this joyous service.
- I was that person a year ago. I received the call from God and said, "Who, me?" The people I trusted with this told me the same thing I said before, "God will not give you something you cannot handle". The beautiful people on the council have welcomed me with open arms. They knew that it was not an accident that I was there. Trust God!
